

Exercise 1: Affirmative Sentences

Complete the sentences using "there is" or "there are."

1. _____ a monster juggling in the town.
2. _____ many colorful houses with unique shapes.
3. _____ a group of monsters playing hide-and-seek.
4. _____ a monster flying with balloons.
5. _____ a bright sun smiling in the sky.
6. _____ several monsters near the mushroom house.
7. _____ a house shaped like a candy cane.

Exercise 2: Negative Sentences

Rewrite these sentences to make them negative using "there isn't" or "there aren't."

1. There is a monster swimming in a pool.
2. There are five clouds in the sky.
3. There is a monster riding a bicycle.
4. There are monsters sleeping inside the houses.
5. There is a purple dragon in the town.
6. There are monsters fishing in a pond.

Exercise 3: Questions

Form questions using "Is there...?" or "Are there...?"

1. _____ a monster with one eye?
2. _____ any monsters flying with balloons?
3. _____ a house shaped like a mushroom?
4. _____ more than three monsters in the picture?
5. _____ a sun smiling in the sky?
6. _____ monsters playing games outside?
7. _____ a teapot-shaped house in the town?