

Word	Definition	Example	Synonym	Antonym	Derived forms
Lesson 1
ash (n)	the soft grey powder that remains after something burns, στάχτη	The ash from her cigarette fell onto the floor.
assumption (n)	something that is taken for granted, υπόθεση	If you ask someone whether she is allowed to watch TV during dinner, you have made an assumption that there is a TV in her house.
crater (n)	the round hole at the top of a volcano, or a hole similar to this, κρατήρας	The mouth of a volcano is called a crater, and the moon has many craters on its surface.
evacuation (n)	to empty a building or a country because of a danger, εκκένωση	The police ordered the evacuation of the building.
evidence (n)	something that gives proof or a reason to believe something, απόδειξη	The police searched for evidence at the scene of the crime.	proof excavation (n)	digging to uncover something, εκσκαφή	Excavation is under way after an ancient statue was found.
forthcoming (adj)	about to appear or happen, επερχόμενος	Everyone is looking forward to his forthcoming novel.	new	past fountain (n)	a stream of water that is forced up into the air through a small hole, especially for decorative effect, συντριβάνι	There is a water fountain in the hall.
harbour (n)	a safe area of water where people can leave their boats, λιμάνι	We saw several boats in the harbour.
inferno (n)	hell, κόλαση	The fire turned the place into an inferno.
likely (adv)	probably; possibly, πιθανώς	It will most likely rain tomorrow.	probably	unlikely	likelihood outskirts (n)	the edges or outlying areas of a city or town, περίχωρα	His family has a farm on the outskirts of the village.
precious (adj)	of great worth or value, πολύτιμος	Gold is a precious metal.	rare, valuable	worthless spectacular (adj)	very exciting to look at; splendid; marvelous, θαυματικός	The fireworks were spectacular.	marvelous, sensational		spectacularly
Lesson 2
disorient (v)	to lose one's sense of direction, αποπροσανατολίζω	Try not to get disoriented in the woods. You'll get lost.			disorientation drown (v)	to die under water because of lack of air, πνίγομαι	The child fell in the river and drowned.

Word	Definition	Example	Synonym	Antonym	Derived forms
expose (v)	to show something that you usually cannot see, εκθέτω	We pulled up the carpet and exposed the wooden floor.	bare	cover, hide fatal (adj)	causing death, μοιραίο	The fatal accident left the boy without a father.	deadly gloomy (adj)	dim or dark, σκοτεινιασμένος	The sky looks gloomy today.	black, dark	brilliant, cheerful hint (n)	a sign or suggestion that is not made in a direct way, υπαινιγμός	If you give me a hint, I might find the answer to the riddle	clue malfunction (v)	to fail to operate or function, δυσλειτουργία	Many soldiers died when their parachutes malfunctioned.
occurrence (n)	something that happens, περίσταση	If you are involved in another occurrence of bullying, you will be thrown out of school.
rescue (v)	to help someone out of a dangerous, harmful or unpleasant situation, διασώζω	The firefighters rescued three people from the burning building.	free, help, save		rescuable, rescuer seek (v)	to try to find; look for, ψάχνω	In the Bible Jesus says 'Seek and you will find'.	hunt, hunt for, look for, settle (v)	to move to a new place and live there, εγκαθιστώ	They settled in Florida.			settled shelter (n)	a place or structure that gives protection against weather or danger, καταφύγιο	During the storm we took shelter in the basement.	cover		sheltered, shelterless sink (v)	to fall slowly to a lower level, βουλιάζω	We watched the rock sink in the pond.	drop, set		sinkable span (v)	to stretch or reach over or across, εκτείνομαι	The bridge spans the river.
stillness (n)	absence of sound or motion, ακινησία, άπνοια, γαλήνη	There is a stillness that runs through the valley which is very calming.	calm, hush, quiet, silence	bustle storey (n)	one level of a building; floor, επίπεδο/όροφος	Their new house has four storeys including the attic.	floor struggle (v)	to fight a difficult problem or situation, παλεύω	He struggled with his maths homework all night.	fight suck (v)	to pull into the mouth by using the tongue and lips, αναρροφώ	I sucked the soda through a straw.
withdraw (v)	to take out or remove, αποσύρω, αποσύρομαι	Marta withdrew all her money from her bank account.	remove	deposit, insert

Lesson 3

eel (n)	a long fish that looks like a snake, χέλι	Eels live in fresh water or salt water.
Lark (n)	a bird which sings beautifully, κορυδαλός	The singing of the lark woke me up.

Word	Definition	Example	Synonym	Antonym	Derived forms
Mule (n)	an animal with a horse as its mother and a donkey as its father, μουλάρι	People use mules for riding or carrying heavy loads.
Ox (n)	one of a breed of large cattle used on farms to pull heavy loads, βόδι	That box was so heavy that he tied it to the ox to move it.
Representative (n)	a person who speaks or acts for a group or community, αντιπρόσωπος	U.S. citizens vote for representatives in Congress.
Sneak (n)	a person who is cowardly, dishonest, or sly; someone who is not worthy of being trusted, ύπουλος	That sneak broke a window and lied about it.
Self - Evaluation
crew (n)	a group of people who work together, πλήρωμα	The road crew finished putting a new surface on the highway.	staff, team stubborn (adj)	not willing to accept change or help, πεισματάρης	She is very stubborn and won't do what they tell her.			