

Word	Definition	Example	Synonym	Antonym	Derived forms
Introduction
doubt (n)	a feeling of not being certain or sure, αμφιβολία	He has doubts about his ability to succeed.		belief, confidence, trust
shade (n)	the dark area caused when light is blocked, σκιά	She sat in the shade of the tree.
shade (n)	a colour slightly different from the one under consideration, απόχρωση	I don't really like this shade of red for a shirt. I am more into this reddish-brown shirt.
Lesson 1
acceptable (adj)	good enough for someone to accept, αποδεκτός	I made some mistakes, but the teacher said my work was acceptable.	satisfactory, worthy
airy (adj)	having a light, delicate look, ευάερος	The thin curtains were made from an airy material.	light, sheer
arrange (v)	to put in an order, τακτοποιώ	Joe arranged his books by author.	classify, make, organize, set up
balance (n)	stability produced when weight is evenly distributed ισορροπία	The dancer kept her balance while standing on her toes.
behold (v)	to see or observe, βλέπω	"Behold" is not a high frequency word in English.	observe, see		beholder
bound (adj)	held by ties, or feeling as if tied, δεμένος	Because of the snowstorm, we were bound to the house.	confined, tied
century (n)	one hundred years, αιώνας	The United States became a country only a few centuries ago.
cheerful (adj)	full of happy or good feelings, χαρούμενος	My sister is always cheerful when she returns from school.	sunny	down, sad, unhappy	cheerfully, cheerfulness
comparative (n)	the form of an adjective that expresses the idea of comparison, συγκριτικός	The words "better," "faster," and "more beautiful" are comparatives.			comparatively
cozy (adj)	warm and snug in a comfortable way, οικείος/συμμάζεμενος	I feel safe when I fall asleep in my cozy bed.	comfortable, snug		cosily, cozily, cosiness, coziness
creative (adj)	able to do something new or with imagination, δημιουργικός	That creative inventor designed a new kind of wheelchair.			creatively, creativeness
depression (n)	a sad feeling that can last a long time and cannot always be explained, κατάθλιψη	She is taking medicine for depression.
elegant (adj)	fine or rich in quality, κομψός	They stayed in an elegant hotel.		gaudy, shabby, tasteless, vulgar	elegance

Word	Definition	Example	Synonym	Antonym	Derived forms
expectation (n)	a belief or hope concerning what is possible in the future, προσδοκία	That teacher has high expectations for her students.
exploit (v)	to make full use of and gain from, εκμεταλλεύομαι	A country should exploit its resources with care.	take advantage of		exploitation
growth (n)	the process of becoming bigger, older or mature, αύξηση	That town had a large growth in population during the 1990s.	production	decrease
homely (adj)	not fancy or special; simple, σπιτικός/συνηθισμένος	The hotel had a a nice homely atmosphere.			homeliness
hue (n)	a degree of lightness or darkness of a colour; shade, απόχρωση, χροιά	I want paint of a slightly darker hue.	shade, tint, tone
impression (n)	a strong feeling or idea that comes from experience, εντύπωση	My impression of my teacher got better as the year went on.	opinion
inspiration (n)	an action, thought, person, or other influence that inspires, έμπνευση	Your poems have been a great inspiration for me to start writing.	motive, stimulus
lash (n)	an eyelash, βλεφαρίδα	She has such long eyelashes that they have asked her to pose as a model.
leap (v)	to jump into the air either straight up or across a distance, πηδάω	The frog leaped from the rock into the water.	hop, jump, spring
mood (n)	a person's general feeling of emotion at a certain time, διάθεση	Too much work has put him in a bad mood.	state, temper
optimism (n)	the belief that everything will turn out well, αισιοδοξία	He was always surprised at her optimism considering all the misfortune that she had experienced in her life.	hope	despair, pessimism
ornate (adj)	having a lot of decoration; fancy, περίτεχνος	She wore an ornate dress covered with lace and pearls.	fancy	austere
piety (n)	devotion to God, θεοσέβεια, ευλάβια	They were aware of their daughter's piety, and yet it surprised them when she announced that she would become a nun.		impiety
rainbow (n)	a curved arch of light of many colours across the sky, ουράνιο τόξο	The rainbow over the sea showed that there was clear weather ahead.
recent (adj)	happening in the very near past, πρόσφατος	Unemployment has risen in recent years.	distant		recently
spectrum (n)	a band of colours that is formed when light is passed through a prism, φάσμα	The six colours of a spectrum are red, orange, yellow, green, blue, and purple.
surround (v)	to form a circle around something, περιβάλλω	The police surrounded the house.

Word	Definition	Example	Synonym	Antonym	Derived forms
tune (v)	to adopt or adjust, especially in order to bring into harmony, εναρμονίζομαι	He tuned his guitar.
variety (n)	a number of different things in a group or class, ποικιλία	Variety is the spice of life' is an English saying.	selection
warmth (n)	the quality of being warm; heat, ζεστασιά, θαλπωρή	The cat loves the warmth of the fire.	heat
Lesson 2
aggressive (adj)	mean and unfriendly; ready to argue or start fights, επιθετικός	He has a hard time getting along with others because of his aggressive nature.	belligerent, offensive, tough	mild, peaceful	aggressively, aggression
brick (n)	a very hard block of clay, τούβλο	People use bricks to make walls.
distinctive (adj)	to set apart or mark as distinct or unusual, διακριτικός	The actor, John Wayne, had a distinctive way of walking.	special	common	distinction
dye (n)	a substance that is used to give colour to cloth, hair, or other materials, βαφή	They are using a special kind of red dye that looks bright under the sea.	colour
fair (adj)	giving equal treatment, δίκαιος	They divided the money in a way that was fair.	just, right	unfair	fairness
feminine (adj)	having to do with a woman or girl; of the female sex, θηλυκός	"Jane" is a feminine name, and "John" is a masculine name.
homesick (adj)	longing for one's home, νοσταλγός	Sometimes children who go away to camp feel homesick.			homesickness
ignore (v)	to refuse to recognize or notice, αγνοώ	She ignored me at the dance.	neglect	recognize, watch
isolation (n)	the condition of being alone, especially when this makes you feel unhappy, απομόνωση	Jesus lived in isolation for 40 days before he started teaching.
judge (v)	to form an opinion about something, κρίνω	Don't judge a book by its cover.
loyalty (n)	the condition of being faithful, πίστη	The soldiers showed great loyalty to their country during the war.	allegiance, faithfulness
proper (adj)	correct or right for a certain purpose, κατάλληλος	Shorts and a T-shirt are not the proper clothing for a job interview.	appropriate, right, suitable
pure (adj)	not mixed with anything else; made of only one substance, αγνός	She's wearing a blouse made of pure silk.	simple		purity
regulation (n)	a rule or law that controls or directs people's actions, κανονισμός	When you build a house, you have to follow your city's rules and regulations.	law, rule
rub (v)	to push back and forward across something using pressure, τριβω	I rubbed the spot on the shirt with soap and water.

Word	Definition	Example	Synonym	Antonym	Derived forms
submarine (n)	a sea vessel that can travel under water, υποβρύχιο	Have you heard the song 'Yellow submarine' by the Beatles?
tense (adj)	feeling nervous and not able to relax, τεταμένος	Elena is tense when she gets home from work.	nervous	calm, relaxed
verify (v)	to make sure of the truth or correctness, επαληθεύω	We verified his story by talking to his father.	confirm, prove		verifiable

Lesson 3

industry (n)	a number of companies that make a particular product, βιομηχανία	The automobile industry employs thousands of people.
instinct (n)	natural behaviour that is not learned, ένστικτο	Instinct makes birds fly south in winter.
scheme (n)	a plan or plot, σχέδιο	The outlaw had a scheme to escape from jail and take revenge on the sheriff.	device, intrigue, plot		