

Easter Assignment

A' Class

2024 - 25

You have been randomly assigned a quote from the book The Boy, the Mole, the Fox and the Horse. Write a short text with your thoughts about it or draw a picture that includes the quote and reflects your own image of it. Be prepared to present it in class. Your text/drawing will be part of the Wisdom Wall on one of your classroom walls.

If you don't like your assignment, you can freely choose from the ones mentioned below. If you have your own ideas on what to do, please share with your teacher. Nothing is not an option!

1. Write a book review for the school blog.
2. If you were a character in the story, what would you be called?
Remember, your character name needs to start with 'The'. Draw yourself in a frame using a heavy ink pen or a marker and make a new page.
3. Pick a quote that resonates with you. Make your own drawing of it and explain why you were drawn in these words in particular.
4. What does "home" mean to the boy, and what does it mean to you?
Make a drawing and write a quote about it.
5. Make a new page in the book drawing your own illustrations and adding your own ideas.
6. Book Trailer: Create a video of 1-2 minutes advertising the book The Boy, the Mole, the Fox and the Horse in a way that will make other students your age interested in reading it. You can use live-action, animation, or any method of combining words and images that you wish, as long as the result is an effective and accurate advertisement and properly credits image sources.

Instructor: Theodora Bougioukou

7. Podcast: Working with a group of no more than three people, write and record a podcast of 5-10 minutes on the book The Boy, the Mole, the Fox and the Horse. You can incorporate music, interviews, or any other common content matter to podcasts.
8. Choose some songs to make a playlist that reflect the themes of the book, such as friendship, kindness, or self-discovery. Instrumental tracks or songs with simple, meaningful lyrics work best.
