

Find a postcard or a picture of a part of your country and write a short description of the place. Bring your postcards to class and share the information with your school mates.

GRAMMAR

Talking about a particular time in the past

[1] Write the times under the correct headings.

at	in	on	no preposition....
night	summer	(the day before yesterday)	last week
Easter	November	Sunday morning	a few days ago
10.45 am	2003	my birthday	(two weeks)
the moment	the evening	20 April 1965	(the 20 th century)
the weekend (BrE)	the 1890's two weeks the 20 th century	the weekend (AmE)	the day before yesterday

summer	10.45 am	the evening
night	last week	a few days ago
the day before yesterday	the weekend	the 1890's
November	my birthday	the moment
Sunday morning	2003	two weeks
Easter	20 April 1965	the 20th century

[2] Correct the following sentences.

- I'll see you on next Saturday. → x
- The term begins in 11 September and ends some time on November. → on / in
- They often go out in Saturday evenings. → on
- Margaret got married at 2000. → in
- Do you give each other presents in Christmas? → at