

1. Combine the pairs of sentences to make 3rd conditional sentences with ... if...

a. We didn't have a good map. That's why we got lost.

If we had had a good map, we wouldn't have got lost.

b. We didn't check the oil. That's why the car broke down.

c. _____
We didn't listen to the weather forecast. That's why we were caught in the fog.

d. _____
Nina broke her ankle. That's why we had to wait for help.

e. _____
We didn't have our mobile phone. That's why we couldn't phone for help.

f. _____
We were rescued the next day. That's why we didn't die of cold.

2. Use the prompts to complete the sentences using the correct conditionals.

a. Where would you live if you could choose anywhere in the world?

(you / can choose anywhere in the world?)

b. If she goes to bed now, _____

(she / probably feel better in the morning)

c. If I were you, _____ .

(I / tell the truth).

d. If everybody gives me a pound, _____

(I / buy a present for Judy from all of us).

e. If you won a million pounds, _____

(what / you spend it on?)

f. You would have met Caroline _____

(if you/ come to the party on Saturday).

g. If my headache doesn't go away, _____

(I / not go with you to the beach).

h. If I had caught the thief, _____

(they / give me a reward).

ANSWER KEY

EXERCISE 1 :

b. If we had checked the oil, the car wouldn't have broken down.

c. If we had listened to the weather forecast, we wouldn't have been caught in the fog.

d. If Nina hadn't broken her ankle, we wouldn't have had to wait for help.

e. If we had had our mobile phone, we could have phoned for help.

f. If we hadn't been rescued the next day, we would have died of cold.

EXERCISE 2:

b. ...she will probably feel better in the morning.

c. ... I would tell the truth.

d. ... I will buy a present for Judy from all of us.

e. ... what would you spend it on?

f. ... if you had come to the party on Saturday.

g. ... I won't go with you to the beach.

h. ... they would have given me a reward.