

Writing

You are on holiday in another country. You are writing a postcard to your friend.

Write a postcard (120–150 words) describing what you are doing during your holiday.
Use the Present Continuous tense to talk about actions happening now.

In your postcard, include:

- where you are staying
- what you are doing these days
- what you are doing right now
- who you are with
- how you feel about your holiday
- the weather
- places you are visiting
- activities you are enjoying

Answer

Dear Mary,

Greetings from Lisbon! I'm staying in a beautiful apartment near the centre of Lisbon with my best friend, Anna. We're having a fantastic holiday and we're enjoying the city very much. These days, we're visiting famous monuments, trying traditional Portuguese food, and exploring the narrow streets of the old town. Right now, I'm sitting at a small café and writing this postcard while Anna is buying postcards and souvenirs. The weather is warm and sunny, so we're spending most of our time outdoors. Tomorrow we're going to Jerónimos Monastery. In the evenings, we're listening to local music, taking photos, and walking near the river. I'm feeling very happy and relaxed because this holiday is exciting, peaceful, and full of unforgettable moments.

See you soon,

Laura
