There is a ....= Υπάρχει
There are two,three ....= Υπάρχουν

1

There is a red car .
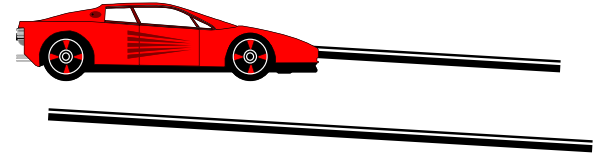

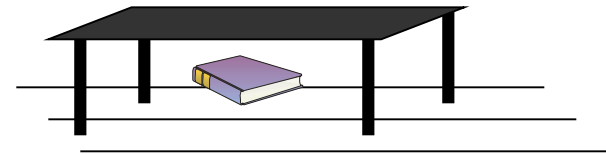

There is a book under the table.
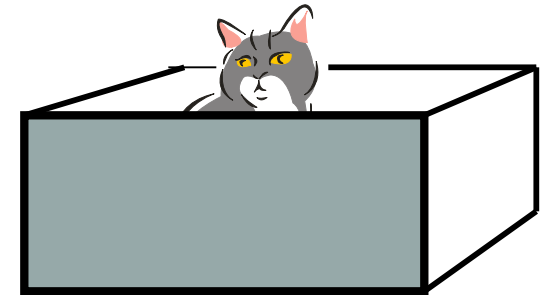

There is a cat in the box.
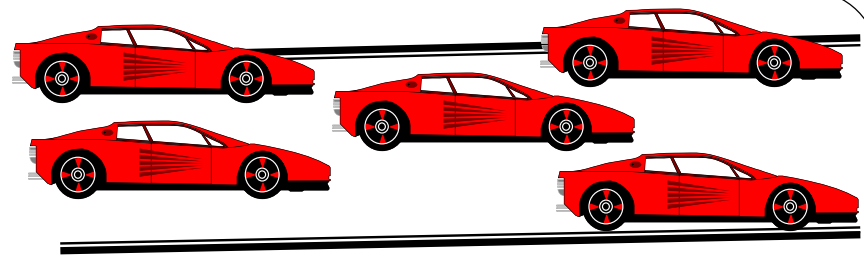

There isn't a blue car .
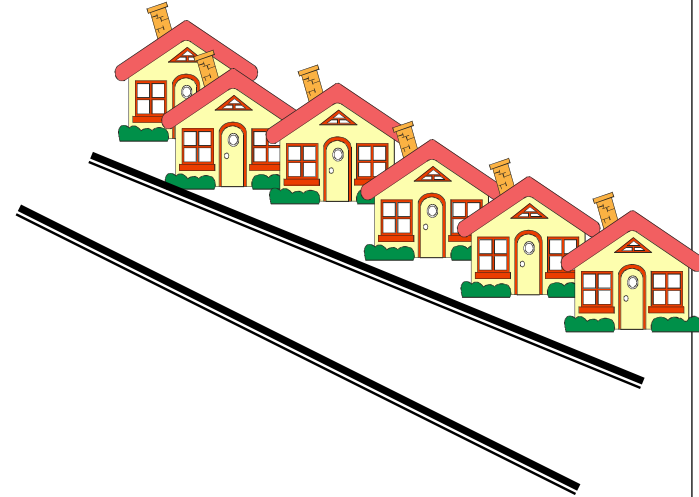

There isn't a pencil under the table.

There isn't a dog in the box.

There are five cars.
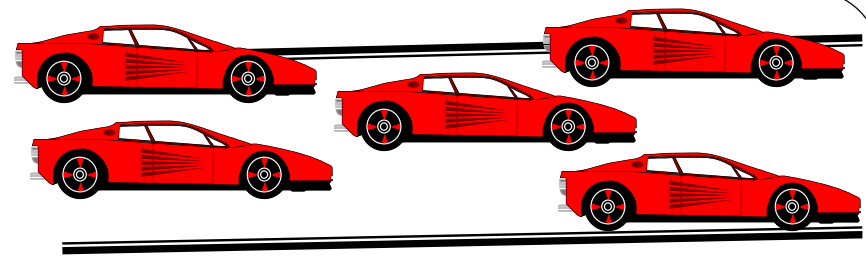

There are six houses.
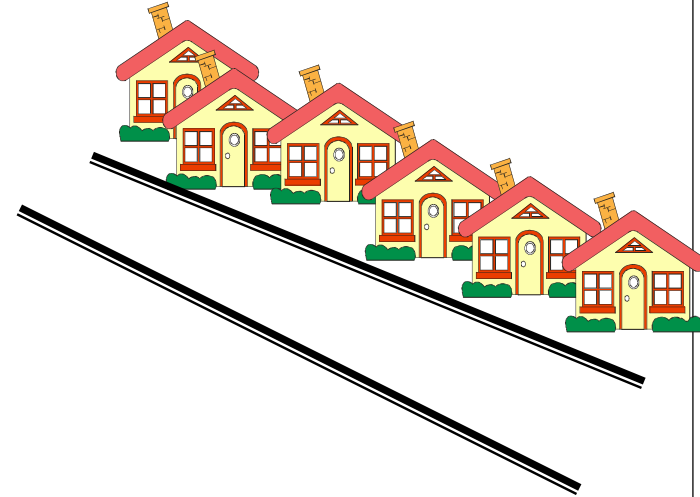

There are five students in the class.

There aren't two cars.

There aren't three houses.

There aren't ten students in the class.

Is there a board in the classroom?

Yes, there is.

Is there a map on the wall?

No, there isn't.

Are there books on the desks?

Yes, there are.

Are there ten students?

No, there aren't.