Jim: How safe are aeroplanes, father?

Father: Very safe. They are the safestof transport.

Mary: Dad, tell us again about that flightwith the air

Father: Yes... it happened in 1985. I was travelling on a Boeing 747 from New York to Ireland.

Mary and Jim: To Ireland!

Father: Yes. It was a business trip. Well, we were flying over the ocean when the plane took a..... Thewas serving coffee and thenext to me was sleeping. I was reading a magazine. The cup of hot coffee wason the magazine. The passenger next to me woke up..... The planeand many passengers were screaming. I knew that something was wrong. While I was saying my....., I heard the captain's calm voice. "Pleaseyour seatbelts. Don't panic. It was only an air pocket. Everything is all right. We are going to..... in Dublin, Ireland in about an hour. Enjoy your coffee."

Jim: Oh... planes meet air pockets and they also meet..... weather.

Father: That's why we should fasten our seatbelts...
