Hurley

- Where is Bucksport?
- Is Nick alone at Bucksport?

- What kind of work do the people of Bucksport do?
- What do people do in their free time?
- What places of interest can you visit in Bucksport?

Bucksport, Maine

Dear Tom and Jane,

I'm so happy to be here at Bucksport, a small town in the State of Maine. The weather is cold and snowy. Helen and I are staying at George Hurley's, our friend's house. The Hurleys are very nice people. At the moment we are having a hot cup of tea and enjoying the fantastic view of the harbour. Mrs Hurley, our friend's mother, is baking some brownies for us. Brownies are people's favourite dessert here.

Bucksport is a quiet, coastal town at the end of Penobscot Bay. The visitors enjoy the view of Fort Knox which stands across the bay. The people of Bucksport work in the paper mill - the International Paper Company- of the town or they run their own business. They are very friendly, hospitable and talkative. They like sports very much. They usually ski, sail, play golf, basketball or tennis. When they don't do sports, they take a walk along the mile-long marina.

Bucksport is a special town to visit. I'm so happy here. I don't want to leave this relaxing place.

Kisses
Nick

Well, it's not far from my home. It's a big building with many facilities. There's a library, a science lab, a theatre and there are also sports facilities. I like the football pitch the most! All my teachers are very good, but Monsieur Picard, the language teacher, is the best! All students learn English. English and Maths are my favourite subjects. ### THE YO-YO

The yo-yo has been very popular throughout world history and may be the second oldest toy in the world (after dolls). We can see ancient Greek yo-yos made of terra cotta in museums in Athens and yo-yo pictures on the walls of Egyptian temples. We know that important men as Napoleon and the Duke of Wellington used to play with yo-yo. It was popular with any generation such as with kids from 1 to 100 years old.

The modern story of the yo-yo starts with a young gentleman from the Philippines, named Pedro Flores. In the 1920s, he moved to the USA, and worked as a porter at a Santa Monica hotel. Carving and playing with wooden yo-yos was a traditional pastime in the Philippines, but Pedro found that when he was playing yo-yo during his lunch break a crowd gathered to watch him. The name "yo-yo," which means "come-come" started at this hotel. He started a company to make the toys, calling it the Flores Yo-Yo Company.

Donald F. Duncan, a businessman first met the yo-yo during a business trip to California. A year later, in 1929, he returned and bought the company from Flores, with the magic name "yo-yo." About this time, Duncan introduced the looped slip-string, which allows the yo-yo to slip - a necessity for advanced tricks.

The biggest yo-yo boom in history hit was in 1962, because of TV advertising.

1. Children in Ancient Greece used to play with yo-yos.
2. Ancient Egyptians used to draw yo-yos at school.
3. Pedro Flores used to play yo-yo before his lunch break.
4. Yo-yo means "stay at the hotel".

Will I be rich
Here's what she said to me:

*Que será, será
Whatever will be, will be
The future's not ours to see
Que será, será
What will be, will be.*

When I grew up and fell in love
I asked my sweetheart
What lies ahead
Will we have rainbows
Day after day
Here's what my sweetheart said:

*Que será, será
Whatever will be, will be
The future's not ours to see
Que será, será
What will be, will be*

Now I have Children of my own
They ask their mother
What will I be
Will I be handsome
Will I be rich
I tell them tenderly

*Que será, será
Whatever will be, will be
The future's not ours to see
Que será, será

- b. Have you heard of bad experiences that have happened to children?
- c. Do you think it's sensible to inform your parents about where you are going? Why?

SAFETY TIPS

Here are some good rules to follow to protect yourself

1. STAY AWAY FROM STRANGERS

Who is a stranger? If you've seen someone hanging around your playground at school or in your neighbourhood, this does not mean that you know him or her. Although he has a familiar face, he is still a stranger to you!

2. GROWN-UPS SHOULD NOT ASK KIDS TO DO THINGS THAT THE OTHER ADULTS CAN DO FOR THEM

This means that you should not go, or get in a car, with an adult who, for example, asks you for directions. Grownups should not ask you to help them find a lost puppy or kitten, either. If someone asks you for help, say, "Wait here and I'll check with my Mum or Dad." Then go and get your Mum or Dad.

3. ALWAYS ASK YOUR PARENTS BEFORE:

- Going anywhere with anybody
- Leaving the yard, play area, or going to someone's house
- Getting a ride home with someone other than your bus driver or your usual ride
- Getting into a car or going somewhere with somebody even if it's someone you know.

4. ONCE YOU HAVE PERMISSION FROM YOUR PARENTS:

- Tell them where you are going
- Tell them how you will get there
- Tell them who will be going with you
- Tell them when you will be back
- Get back on time and call to let them know when you will be back!

5. IF SOMEONE FOLLOWS YOU ON FOOT OR IN A CAR, STAY AWAY.

You do not need to get near the car to talk to the people inside.

Now imagine you are a mother or a father. Your son/daughter is late from school because he/she spent some time playing at the park with a friend on the way home. How do you feel? What do you say when your child arrives home? Remember how we give advice.

THE SECRET OF BOG CREEK

My name is Bob and this is my daughter Jeannie. A couple of times each month we travel up to the farmland of New Jersey to do a little fishing. We talk about school, friends, and sometimes even catch a few fish too!

For years, one of our favorite fishing spots was a stream near an old piece of land called Bog Creek farm. Although Bog Creek farm certainly looked normal, it had a dark secret.

Bog Creek farm looked like an average, everyday chicken ranch. However, some people used the farm as a place to dump their old chemicals and paints. These chemicals were dumped into a 150 foot long trench, about half as long as a football field, which stretched across the property. We knew about Bog Creek farm's secret because we fished so close to the property.

After a few years of secret dumping, a neighbor complained to local officials about the stinky smells that kept coming from the property. After talking it over with the neighbor, the officials decided to visit the owner of Bog Creek farm and check it out for themselves.

The owner told the officials that people had dumped chemicals into the trench on his property for as long as he could remember. After listening to the owner's story, the officials asked the owner to bulldoze the trench and ship the dirt to a special storage area. The owner agreed. However, even after the dirt was shipped away, the stinky smells continued.

A few months later, things started to get a little strange. Whenever my daughter and I went on one of our fishing trips, we began to notice...

2. Now, can you guess what Bob and his daughter began to notice? Write your answer and finish the story.

C. Reading

Read the text and answer the True / False questions below:

Leatherback Turtles

All over the world, the species of sea turtles are endangered. Endangered means that there are very few left, so they may become extinct.

The leatherback is the largest sea turtle and can grow to be about 2 meters long. The turtle's basic diet is jellyfish, although it eats fish and other sea creatures. They are born on land but live their lives in water. The male leatherbacks never return to land after they are born and the females only return to lay eggs.

There are many reasons why the leatherbacks have become endangered. One cause of endangerment is that many humans and animals think they are a delicious food. Another reason is that humans hunt the adult sea turtles all over the world because they use their skin to make bags and clothes.

More and more, people are using the beaches where sea turtles lay eggs; as a result they lose their habitat. Also the sea turtles are easily disturbed because of the noise and the lights. Another cause is irresponsible fishing. Fishermen often catch sea turtles in their nets so the turtles drown when that happens.

Finally, pollution in the oceans kills many turtles every year. Turtles confuse floating plastic garbage with jellyfish and eat the garbage. But they can't digest the garbage so they die.
