Idiom	Definition	Idiom	Definition
Like a fish out of water	Very uncomfortable or out of place	Packed like sardines	Very crowded
A whale of a time	Having a great time	Smooth sailing	Easy and with no problems
The world is your oyster	You can get all you want from life	Slippery as an eel	Untrustworthy or tricky
Big fish in a small pond	Important person in a small area	Sink or swim	Fail or succeed
The coast is clear	No one will see or catch you	Smells fishy	Something dishonest may be happening
A drop in the ocean	A very small part of what you really need	Swim against the tide	Go against what is popular
Rock the boat	Say or do something that upsets people or causes problems	The tip of the iceberg	Small part of a bigger problem
Make waves	Cause trouble	Water under the bridge	The experience is over and done with
Run a tight ship	Run things in an organized and firm manner	Whatever floats your boat	Whatever interests you
Go overboard	To do something to excess	Fish for compliments	Try to get someone to give you a compliment
Fishy	Suspicious	Fish or cut bait	Either do the job or let someone else do it
A fine kettle of fish	A mess	Green around the gills	You look sick
Clam up	Not talking	Dead in the water	Unable to compete
Red as a lobster	Sunburned	Plenty of other fish in the sea	There are other people to choose from
Card shark	Great card player	Keep your head above water	You are just barely able to handle things
