

INTRODUCTORY VERBS

1. "Don't go near the fire", she told the children.
She warned the children.....
2. "You should take an aspirin" he told her.
He advised her .....
3. "Would you like to have dinner with us, Ann?" Mary asked.
Mary invited Ann .....
4. "Let's dance" he said.
  - a. He suggested .....
  - b. He suggested that .....
5. "Shall I send the letter?" she asked.
She offered .....
6. "Please, please don't break it" he told her.
He begged her .....
7. «You broke my vase!" she told the little boy.
She accused the little boy.....
8. "No, I won't help you" he told me.
He refused .....
9. "I will study harder" he said.
  - a. He promised .....
  - b. He promised that .....
10. "No, I didn't steal it!" he said.
  - a. He denied .....
  - b. He denied that .....
11. "I wish I hadn't called him" he said.
He regretted .....
12. "I stole it" he said.
  - a. He admitted .....
  - b. He admitted that .....
13. "I'm sorry I was late" she said.
She apologized .....
14. "Please, be quiet!" she told the children.
She asked the children .....
15. "Let's go" he told them.
  - a. He suggested their .....
  - b. He suggested that .....
16. "What a beautiful house!" she said.
She exclaimed .....